A new idea came to mind yesterday while putting more stock on site. I am missing names of a fair few of my butterflies and why not get my customers and viewers to join in and help me. A great idea for kids too who can search the internet looking at butterflies and naming them, a good holiday project.

Everyone wants to get something for free so we will reward our researches with free butterflies and also recognition on the butterfly they find the name of. Their NAME IN LIGHTS so to speak :) All you have to do is send us proof via link or image of the name and we will change the listing and give credit to the lucky winner.

The competition will run till all butterflies are named so we should have some very happy people at the end of it not to mention ME and the Butterflies who need a name. So look on front page for this image and click to learn more and join our competition today.
