I know it has been ages since I blogged and that is slack but all for a good reason. We have been doing so well that I haven't had five minutes to sit and type. Butterflies are flying out the door and I so appreciate my customers for the lovely compliments we have received .

This customer used a mix of wires and icing to attach here Butterflies. It made for a spectacular cake.

The most successful wedding pack we have sold this year is the Martha Stewart Replica Pack. A Vibrant Rainbow of colours attached to the cake simply with a touch of royal icing on the shiny side of the butterfly.

This cake has approx 60 Butterflies covering it.

Why should the kids miss out. This customer decorated for her daughters fairy party. The shiny side of the butterfly was attached to the sticky buttercream icing and safely removed before eating :)

I know this photo is a little hard to see but I wanted to let you appreciate the amount of work this mum went to for her daughters 1st Birthday Party. Butterflies and Ladybugs scattered the walls, decorated the sweet bags and even the balloons.
